If the player gambles and wins, the feature they have gambled to can be collected. This continues until the player collects, reaches the top feature (where it awards that feature) or the player reveals either Mystery Win or a previously awarded feature which is automatically collected (a mystery win is a cash value based on a multiplier of the player's total bet ranging from 5x-35xbet).

The odds of winning during the gamble feature are not necessarily the odds shown.
